

Child and Volunteer Protection Advocate

Purpose

The AYSO volunteer position of child and volunteer protection advocate is intended to oversee the child and volunteer protection program in the region in accordance with the AYSO Safe Haven program.

Specific Duties and Responsibilities

The child and volunteer protection advocate is expected to:

1. Support the regional commissioner in the promotion and implementation of the AYSO Safe Haven Program, including the three main elements of volunteer protection;
2. Be familiar with the Child Protection Act of 1993, the Volunteer Protection Act of 1997, the Good Samaritan Laws of the State of _____, and that state's provisions for the reporting of child abuse and neglect;
3. Work with the registrar to see that all volunteers complete, date, and sign the AYSO volunteer application form and its authorization to perform applicant screening, and be the screening liaison with the AYSO National Support & Training Center;
4. Ensure all AYSO volunteers are duly registered in eAYSO;
5. Check references for all new coaches, referees, board members, team parents, and others who have direct supervision of players. Random reference checks for everyone else;
6. Be aware of AYSO's definitions of levels of risk, inform prospective volunteers that they are screened at a level appropriate to the level of risk, and maintain a copy of AYSO's screening policy;
7. Enforce AYSO protocols to protect privacy and privileged information;
8. Present to the regional board a motion to accept the list of coaches, referees, and other volunteers each season at a board meeting;
9. Ensure that the region keeps on hand the written position descriptions for each volunteer filling a regional position;

10. Serve as a resource and/or a facilitator to the region's members on the requirements for good faith reporting of abuse and molestation to law enforcement agencies and child welfare agencies;
11. Assist with the ongoing evaluation of volunteers;
12. Meet with the head coach of each team, either individually or in a group with the coach administrator, to review child protection and supervision responsibilities prior to each season;
13. Meet with the referees, either individually or in a group with the referee administrator, to review child protection and supervision responsibilities prior to each season;
14. See that the region's supervision ratio is enforced; and
15. Promote the region's standards of behavior and conduct as laid out in the child and volunteer protection policies, procedures, and guidelines of the AYSO Safe Haven program.
